

CURRENT ISSUES

BOOKS AND OTHER PRINT RESOURCES:

Use the OPAC (online library catalog) and enter your current issue in the text line – click on keyword to locate books on your subject.

SIRS Enduring Issues – silver spiral notebooks housed in the SHS library

CQ Researcher – Blue bound pamphlets located in the SHS library. A link to the complete subject index is available on the SHS Library Research Web Page under the subject of Current & Controversial Issues.

Information Plus soft cover books in the SHS library collection.

CURRENT ISSUES ELECTRONIC RESOURCES:

Opposing Viewpoints database – available through the Butler SHS Library Research Web Page at school and at home. Click on the Opposing Viewpoints icon under Quick Links and enter the following information:

User ID - butler

CQ Researcher Online database – available through the Butler SHS Library Research Web Page at school and at home. Click on the CQ Researcher icon under Quick Links and enter the following information: Username – butlerhigh
Password - cqr

SHS Library Research Web Page

This is in the Internet Explorer “favorites” folder on the library computers, or through <http://www.butlershslibrary.com> from home. Click on the blue button “begin researching” then scroll down and click on the gold button for “current & controversial issues” to access links to online current issues resources and other information.

POWER Library magazine and newspaper databases – available on the library computers or from the Butler SHS Library Research Web Page and the Public Library Web Page if you have a valid public library card.